

OUR MISSION

All around downtown Manchester are thousands of people who are living on the edge. Families and individuals facing the most difficult circumstances any of us could imagine.

There is great suffering taking place every day very close to us. The objective of the 1269 Elm Street Café is to remove suffering in our neighborhood by showing God's love in action and by loving people as they are and leading them to a better way to live.

THANKSGIVING

On Wednesday, November 25, 2009 the 1269 Elm Street Café will host a FREE Thanksgiving dinner from 4:30 - 8 PM at Steve's House Restaurant for the poor in the downtown Manchester area.

At this time we will also be providing winter warmth and personal care items.

CAN YOU HELP?

- DONATION BOX

Place a donation box in your workplace.

- CLOTHING

Provide basic necessities for those in need:

coats
socks mittens hats
sleeping bags blankets
personal care items

- PEOPLE

Send people over who can use these items or a Thanksgiving meal.

- FOOD ITEMS

Provide non-perishable food items.
